Evidence

- 16. In the 1990s, Suarez was much younger and less responsible than he is today. But while Suarez acknowledges that he made mistakes, he has never been an alcoholic, nor did he abuse alcohol on a regular basis at any time in his life, nor does he abuse alcohol today. Alcohol simply does not interfere with Suarez's life in any way, and it has not adversely impacted his life since the 1998 DUI conviction.
- 17. On August 31, 2009, the Court of Common Pleas of Adams County, Pennsylvania, granted Suarez's petition for removal of disqualification from owning or possessing firearms, pursuant to 18 Pa. C.S. § 6105(d)(3)(ii).
- 18. Question 11(c) on ATF Form 4473 asks:
  "Have you ever been convicted in any court of a felony, or any other crime, for which the judge could have imprisoned you for more than one year, even if you received a shorter sentence including probation?"
- 19. Defendants instruct firearm dealers to refrain from running a background check on anyone who answers yes to Question 11(c) on Form 4473, and simply to deny the purchase transaction on the basis of that answer.

20. Suarez desires and intends to possess firearms for self-defense and for defense of his family.

Fact

Evidence

- 21. Suarez refrains from obtaining a firearm only because he reasonably fears arrest, prosecution, incarceration and fine, under 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1), instigated and directed by Defendants, should he follow through with his plan to obtain a firearm.
- 22. Suarez refrains from purchasing a firearm from a private party, because doing so would subject him to arrest, prosecution, fine, and incarceration, at Defendants' instigation and direction, for violating 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(1).
- 23. Considering Defendants' interpretation of federal law, Suarez is unwilling to state on Form 4473 that he has not, in fact, been convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment for over one year.
- 24. Suarez suffers the on-going harm of being unable to obtain firearms, which he would, in fact, obtain but for Defendants' enforcement of Section 922(g)(1).
